

Belleville Wix Academy

Year 1W History - Summer 1 - Changing Childhood

To launch their new history topic 1W helped their teachers identify some artefacts that were found in a loft in Clapham.

The children used their historical enquiry skills to work out who the objects may have belonged to and what they might have been for.

After some lively discussion and sharing of knowledge, the children worked out that the items must have belonged to a family living in Clapham during the Victorian era.