

Belleville Wix Academy

Year 1W History – How has life changed?

We launched our history learning by exploring the question: How much time has there been?

We then thought about:
How has technology changed?

We explored different historical artefacts and classified them into how they were used. For communication, printing or entertainment.