

Belleville Wix Academy

Year 1W Science – Materials

Humpty Dumpty wrote us a letter – he needed to know which materials would help protect him from his falls... So we started to explore!

Then we had another problem to solve, Miss Williams spilled water all over the floor, which material would absorb it all?

We performed a test on different materials to see which would be best. We measured out equal amounts of water with a pipette to make the test fair.